Throughout Lent, you've read about Charity, Unity, and Fraternity – the three pillars of the Knights of Columbus. It's through these three pillars we serve you – our fellow parishioners – and the Church itself through volunteerism, fundraising, and prayer.

We have great opportunities coming in the next few weeks to continue that service and ask you – if you are a Catholic man 18 years of age or older – to please join us. It's as simple as talking to any current Knight, or visiting www.kofc.org/join, then making space to be a part of one or two of our volunteer efforts throughout the year, and join a few of the membership meetings. We don't take attendance, and we all understand having family and work obligations that take priority – but every extra hand makes for lighter work and greater impact to our parishes.

We'd love to have you be a part of this great organization.
 Come join us!
